

ITEMS OF INTEREST IN AND ABOUT TOWN

Happenings of the Day in Various Parts of the Nation's Capital.

The debating team of George Washington University again will uphold the affirmative side of a debate on the question: "Resolved, that the United States should adopt a system of universal military training," tonight in the Public Library, the negative of the question being upheld by a team from the Pittsburgh University. The team from George Washington was adjudged winner in a debate on the same question a week ago, when it downed a team from Washington and Jefferson.

W. E. Kemp, H. M. Brock, and A. C. Wilkins will represent George Washington, and A. W. Kornhauser, J. A. Snyder, and J. R. Milligan will compose the team from the Pittsburgh University.

The judges are: William Hitz, associate justice of the District Supreme court; Cato Sells, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and W. R. King, chief counsel for the Reclamation Service. Jean William Allen Wilbur, dean of the Columbian College of George Washington University, will preside.

Playlet at High School.

"Tradition," Mrs. Carrie W. Clifford's new playlet, will be presented by Charles E. Lane, Jr., with Albert Knorr and a cast of local talent, at the Dunbar High School tonight.

To Address Bankers.

H. Parker Willis, of the Federal Reserve Board, will discuss "International Exchange" at a meeting of the Washington Chapter of the American Institute of Banking at 1214 F street northwest tomorrow night.

Talks on "Wise Men."

"The Wise Men of the East and the Wise Men of the West" is the subject of a lecture to be delivered by Abraham M. Lichbany, Syrian author, at All Souls' Church, Fourteenth and M streets northwest, tonight for the benefit of the Syrian relief fund.

Talk of Many Needs.

Dr. I. W. Jacobs and Dr. O. P. Manahan, both of the Naval Hospital staff, will discuss present needs of the United States navy at a meeting of the Y. M. C. A. at the main building of the association at 8:30 tomorrow night. The object of the lectures is to promote recruiting.

Veterinarians to Smoke.

A smoker will be held at the Raleigh Hotel tomorrow night by the alumni of the United States College of Veterinary Surgeons. The principal speakers will be Dr. J. G. Fennel, of the University of Virginia, and Major Gerald Griffith, U. S. A.

Organizing Animal Relief.

A Washington branch of the American Red Star Animal Relief will be organized this afternoon in the rooms of the Washington Humane Society, 1502 H street northwest. Branches are being organized in other cities. The object is to care for horses and mules used in war time.

Plan Organization.

Plans looking to the perfection of a permanent organization were discussed at a luncheon of the local branch of the Kiwanis Club, a temporary body devoted to the "golden rule" in business, at the Cochran Hotel yesterday. New members are rapidly being recruited. Frederick A. Cochran is temporary president.

To Give Ninth Concert.

The ninth public concert of the students of the Washington College of Music will be held in Masonic Auditorium, Thirteenth street and New York avenue, at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The soloists will be Mrs. Ethel H. Gawler, Miss Alma Thomas, Miss Lael T. Rose, Miss Doris De Groot, Miss Kathryn Bouck, Miss Florence Reynolds, and Henry Christian.

Y. W. C. A. Chapter Recital.

A recital to be given by the Dupont Chapter of the Y. W. C. A. in Studio Hall, 1219 Connecticut avenue, tomorrow night, will be featured by the selections of Miss Alice McDowell, concert pianist of Symphony Chambers, Boston. Miss McDowell will be assisted by Mrs. Charles W. Fairfax, Mrs. Margaret Spaulding Gerry, and Prof. Anton Kaspar.

Parish Reception Held.

The Men's Club of St. Stephen's Protestant Episcopal Church gave its annual parish reception in honor of the rector and the assistant rector last night. In the receiving line were the Rev. George Fiske Dudley, rector, and Mrs. Dudley, and the Rev. E. H. Stevens, assistant rector, and Mrs. Stevens. Members of the reception committee were George B. Seiden, S. P. Oliver, Major E. F. Riggs, and John C. Williams.

Typhoid Meets.

Men prominent in the printing industry throughout the country addressed members of the typhoid-tae of Washington in the rooms of the Board of Trade last night. Color and its relation to printing, the right kind of paper for every job, co-operation, and similar phases of the trade were discussed by the speakers. The officers of the Typhoid-tae are: Frank E. Sherry, president; Lewis N. Thayer, vice president; James L. Shaw, treasurer; E. D. Williams, secretary, and William H. Delaney, counsel and business secretary.

Barrett To Speak.

John Barrett, director general of the Pan-America Union, will speak on "What War Means To and Expects of America; Lessons From England and France," in the Halls of America in the Pan-American building Sunday evening at 8:30 o'clock. He will describe actual war conditions both on and behind the firing line as seen by him.

Sigma Delta Dance.

About fifty couples attended the tenth annual Easter dance of the Sigma Delta Fraternity, with chapters in Central High School and McKinley Manual Training School, at the Raleigh last night. The committee in charge consisted of James O'Connell, Jr., president of the alumni association, and J. Harper Shapp, also of the alumni; Edward Tabors, of Central, and Gerald Duke and Raymond Parker, of Tech.

Colored Y. M. C. A.

A. H. Long, an instructor at Howard University, will address the members of the Mu-Su-Lit Club tomorrow evening at the Colored Y. M. C. A., 1816 Twelfth street northwest, on "The Comparative Intelligence of White and Colored Children." "Fellowship" will also be discussed by the club, with a view of enlarging the scope and work of the organization. Walter J. Singleton will preside, and musical selections will be rendered by a glee club.

Beauty Roses Only Allies.

The roses we term "American Beauties" are of foreign origin. J. Horace McFarland, president of the American Civic Association, said at a special meeting of the association last night in the Public Library. "The rose," he said, "is the universal flower. A rose is a rose, no matter what country you are in." Mr. McFarland said he would like to see a variety of roses which essentially belonged to the United States.

To Give Church Minstrel.

A mixed minstrel show with male and female choruses will be presented by the Young People's Union of the Second Baptist Church at Odd Fellows Hall on Seventh street northwest tomorrow night. There will be three principal features, including the American Minstrel Trio, Zed Clark, "The Whistling Coon," and Platorio's Band. Miss Mabel I. Cooksey is the leading soprano, with Earl Duvall as the right-end man. The proceeds are for the erection of a new Sunday school building for the Second Baptist Church.

Miss Rankin to Speak.

Miss Jeannette Rankin, Congresswoman from Montana, has been invited to address members of the Woman's Benefit Association of the Macabees at the annual banquet of the organization in the New Ebbitt this evening. Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett also will speak. Plans for the banquet were formulated at a meeting of the officers' club with Miss Edna McIntosh this week.

Tells of Belgian Refugees.

How Belgian refugees live in Holland was described by Prof. Albert Van Hecke, formerly of the University of Louvain, yesterday before the University Club. The lecture was for the benefit of the Belgian refugee workshop fund and subscription envelopes were distributed. Moving pictures taken in the camps illustrated the way in which the money and clothes furnished by Americans are being used. Each camp has a hospital, a church, a postoffice, and a school. He estimates that not less than 300,000 Belgians have taken refuge in Holland.

W. C. T. U. Delegates.

Delegates to attend the sessions of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union at Fifth Baptist Church on April 25 were named at a meeting of the Mt. Pleasant branch of the W. C. T. U. at the home of Miss Irene Banes, 3101 Thirteenth street northwest, yesterday. The delegates are Mrs. William E. Andrews, Mrs. S. E. Haden, Mrs. Julia Boyce, Mrs. R. B. Hitchcock, Mrs. A. B. Carly, Miss Conkey, Mrs. Jerome Harig, and Mrs. David Brooks. Mrs. James A. Edgar, president of the Mt. Pleasant branch, presided. Mrs. William E. Andrews instructed the members in parliamentary law. Miss M. Bailey, of England, was an honor guest.

OPENS CAMPAIGN TO HEAD D. A. R.

Mrs. George C. Squires, of St. Paul, Is to Make Vigorous Effort.

Mrs. George C. Squires, of St. Paul, Minn., candidate for the office of president general of the D. A. R., will formally open headquarters at the Powhatan Hotel tomorrow, when her secretarial staff will reach Washington from the West. Mrs. A. F. Olson, of St. Paul, is secretary of the delegation that is coming to Washington to push the candidacy of Mrs. Squires.

Mrs. Squires has announced in her platform the determination to place the D. A. R. on a war footing if she is elected. She is an advocate of preparedness, and in campaign literature expresses herself as being unequivocally behind any movement to increase the strength of the land and sea forces of the United States.

Another issue on which Mrs. Squires hopes to win the office is her stand on the question of temperance. Nothing short of national prohibition will save this country from becoming a dissipated nation, she declared today.

Mrs. Hamilton Lewis, the latest candidate for president general, will reach Washington tomorrow from a Southern tour. Mrs. John Miller Horton, of Buffalo, arrived today. Mrs. George Thatcher Guernsey, of Kansas, is stopping at the Willard, and is prepared to make a strong effort for the office of president general.

The first large meeting of an official nature, preliminary to the convention Monday, will be tomorrow when the Continental Hall committee meets to hear Mrs. Joseph Handell, treasurer general, report that the D. A. R. is prepared to reduce the debt on the hall by paying another $5,000 bond, leaving an indebtedness of only $10,000 to be wiped out. Four years ago the debt on the hall was $125,000.

HEADS CONFERENCE

Rev. John M. Gill Is Honored by Methodist Protestant Church.

The Rev. John M. Gill, for eleven years pastor of the Rhode Island Avenue Methodist Protestant Church and now in charge of a West Baltimore Church, has been elected president of the annual Methodist Protestant Conference of Maryland.

The Rev. Mr. Gill came to Washington in 1901 to be pastor of what was then the Central M. P. Church, Twelfth and M streets northwest. Largely through his efforts the church membership was doubled several times within the next few years.

HELGESEN'S FUNERAL.

Funeral services for Congressman Henry T. Helgesen, representing the First district of North Dakota, who died Tuesday at Garfield Hospital, will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock at Foundry M. E. Church. The Rev. Walter Burnett, pastor of the church, will officiate. Immediately following the services the body will be sent to the Congressman's home at Decorah, N. D., for interment. A committee from the House will accompany the body.

ASKS SUFFRAGE COMMITTEE.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, head of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, has written to Speaker Champ Clark urging that a committee be organized in the House corresponding to the Senate Suffrage Committee.

Speaker Clark promised Mrs. Helen Gardner, committeewoman of the national association, that he will do all he can.
